Reprints

Reprinted articles which have appeared in Cahnners magazines can become the greatest means of increasing your promotion results. And, because of the large volume of printing we purchase, we can offer you complete reprint service at an amazingly low cost.

Think of the hundreds of good uses you can find for reprints. They are extremely valuable promotion pieces, particularly when you tie them in with a Cahnners direct mail program.

Here are some uses for reprints. They just scratch the surface of the hundreds of ways you can make reprints work for you.

- Direct mail to customer and prospect list or to a special list.
- For display at corporate, field offices and showrooms.
- To welcome new customers.
- To follow up on inquiries about your products.
- To explain a product to a customer.

Now you can get fast, high-quality service on all your reprint requirements through Cahnners Direct Marketing Services, your Custom Reprint Source.
